FRANCK PELUX RETURNS TO THE TOP CHEF SET

« I was truly happy to return to the Top Chef set and to take part in the finale — this time as a member of the jury.

Eight years later... the emotion is still just as strong! This competition is so incredible, it remains one of my most unforgettable memories. »

Franck Pelux
Chef of La Table at the Lausanne Palace
2 Michelin stars

For its 16th season, Top Chef welcomes Franck Pelux, the two-Michelin-starred chef of La Table du Lausanne Palace, as a guest judge for the grand finale.

An unprecedented final awaits the two contestants of this exceptional season. Indeed, the very next day after the winner is announced, they will open the doors to their own pop-up restaurant! The finale itself will take place in this unique venue, where 30 renowned chefs have gathered to vote for the winner of Season 16.

As throughout the season, Michelin Guide inspectors will also be present — anonymously and in a separate room — to decide whether the winner's restaurant will be awarded a star.

The episode will air on Wednesday, July 2, 2022, at 9:10 p.m. on M6.
