

La Table du Lausanne Palace is rewarded by gourmet guides

Three months after the great opening, La Table du Lausanne Palace has already conquered the taste buds of Lausanne's residents and beyond. The new gastronomic address at the Lausanne Palace is managed by the emblematic Chef Franck Pelux and his partner Sarah Benahmed.

First in November 2020, the restaurant was rewarded with a score 16/20 points by the gourmet guide Gault&Millau, which also awarded Chef Pelux the title "Discovery of the Year 2021" in the Romandie region.

On February 2, 2021, the famous Michelin Guide unveiled its ranking and gave one star to La Table du Lausanne Palace, underlining the "expressive and intense cuisine of the Chef". This new star confirms the high quality of the culinary offer at the Lausanne Palace, located in the heart of the city.

"In these complicated times, what a wonderful sign of encouragement for Franck and his team who have dedicated themselves with enthusiasm since their arrival at the Lausanne Palace." said Ivan Rivier, General Manager

"We are very pleased with the support we received from the gourmet guides only after a few months of activity. What is happening is incredible and we couldn't have wished for more. These distinctions are the result of years of passionate hard work, but also reflections on our vision of gastronomy and the experience want to share with our guests. This encourages us to persevere to honor the trust that has been placed in us since our arrival in Switzerland. We look forward to returning to the kitchen to continue this beautiful adventure." said Franck Pelux, Chef at La Table du Lausanne Palace
